

Here is What is

Directors: Daniel Lanois, Adam Vollick, Adam Samuels

At such a festival you might over look this film at first glance

Yet, this film can wrestle you into a trance.

So forget the booth, it is creative doom

Lanois and crew record their in a very large room.

With that in mind Daniel creates most of his art in the mix

Yes post-production is the key in his musical bag of trixs

So look silly rabbit this film is for kids

And anybody who understands the power of ad-libs

Great Music

Great Image

Great Interviews

Why did the cameo of Billy Bob fail to make the news?

From blues to rock this film soothes

Like cheap Orange Juice mixed with expensive booze.

In all, this film explores the creative process

So in my opinion this film is flawless.
