

It is Fine! Everything is Fine
Directed By Crispin Hellion Glover

Yes, Crispin is back with a psychosexual film that is quite disturbing,
With the Cerebral Palsy Stewart, starring and doing all the writing.

However, shortly after the filming Stewart passed away.

But, before he left he had a whole bunch to say:

About women

About killing

About men

About feeling

About hair (yes Hair!)

And about what is fair.

Is it fair to take revenge if you are considered an outcast?

So, who dares put this writer on blast.

This film takes sex and fantasy to new heights

Creating descriptive images that surely aren't right.

Nonetheless, the film possesses shock value beyond MTV

And for its originality I give it a "B".
