

Girlfriends Season 2 DVD

Love Girlfriends!

It's like the black version of "Sex in the City" minus all the "promiscuous" sex-

Expect for free spirited Lynn.. She's my favorite character..

All the characters on the show can be relate to..

It has all the Drama, relationships, friendships, pain and suffering all combined in one..

It brings all working classes of women into one umbrella

You have Joann: The work-a-holic, strong minded, successful black woman working in a man's world as a Lawyer, has her life in order. She is afraid to tell her best friend Toni how she really feels about their friendship.. On the flip side: she can be a lil Bourgie, she's doesn't know how to love, but really wants to and she has a habit of keeping things inside..

Lynn: Artistic, free spirited, loves sex and highly intellectual but is afraid of commitment, she hides behind her degrees, afraid of being on her own..

Toni: No nonsense, fly girl of the group, fashion sense to the 10th power! But she doesn't want anyone to know when she is in pain, she hides behind her strong mindedness and doesn't want to appear "weak".. She also has a problem with owning up to her responsibilities..

Mya: She's the youngest of the 3, she is a great example of a young single mother and wife making a positive impact on the 3..She's real in all aspects, down to earth, can fit into any circle but she lacks strength in her marriage.

Season 2 is really good... This season deals a lot with the conflict within Toni and Joann's friendship (with Mya and Lynn are stuck taking sides).. The drama escalates until one of them "gives" in and tells the other the way that they feel.. It also deals with Mya's infidelity and Lynn's fling.

That's that!!!! Speak Soon.. Azizah Divine
