

Mr. Untouchable

Infatuated with the “fast life”.. the street life is the only life he knows..
He was Mr. Untouchable, Mr. Visual in plain site..
He had class, a certain swagger that attracted everyone.. He was the American Dream..

He treated his “drug empire” as you would play a game of chess..
Every move was thought out and carefully calculated
He sold drugs, he did drugs, he helped the community, he hurt the community, he changed the whole drug game.. But as quoted “junkies don’t make good business men”
He was arrested, imprisoned, but eventually got clean.. And got back on his grind..

He flipped the game, now it’s predator on the hunt..
Heroin is his ticket to the top, the “French connection” is a universal marriage..
Closed mouths don’t get feed, “By any means Necessary” was the goal, was the target..
Nicky Barnes “Street Corner Executive”

The number 7.. “Lucky number 7”.. Do you know the power behind the number 7?

Infinite Possibilities... Even the Highest Mountain will crumble..
